“A PASSPORT THROUGH TIME” HARVEST FAIRE AT THE DUBLIN HERITAGE PARK AND MUSEUMS

DUBLIN, California, October 14, 2013 – On Saturday, October 26, 2013, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m., the Dublin Heritage Park and Museums will turn back the clock to an autumn day in the early 1900s for its annual Harvest Faire. The Harvest Faire will offer families a living history-filled afternoon, along with some old-fashioned fun.

Visitors can take a step back to simpler times and spend the day learning how to live the old-fashioned way. Living history activities will include hand-cranking ice cream, churning butter, making apple pie, and doing laundry on a washboard. Additional fall fun can be had by taking a wagon ride, shucking corn, and playing in the haystack. The Harvest Faire will also feature live bluegrass music with special performances by the Dublin Bluegrass Band and the Dublin Irish Jam Band. The 1910 Kolb House and 1850s Murray Schoolhouse will be open during the event for tours.

General admission to Heritage Park and the Harvest Faire is free. The Faire includes both free and pay activities. Passports for living history activities can be purchased at the event for $5.00. Each passport allows for participation in all old-time harvest activities and panning for gold.

The Harvest Faire is a program of the City of Dublin's Parks and Community Services Department. For more information, call (925) 556-4500.
